ADDRESS DELIVERED BY

HIS HONOR MAYOR CROWLEY

At the Inauguration of the City Government, Jan. 1, 1915.

GENTLEMEN OF THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN:

We inaugurate to-day a system of government under new conditions as provided for by a charter approved May 21, 1913 and adopted June 10, 1913. Under the provisions of this charter the responsibilities are more intimately placed upon us than formerly and in the execution of such plans as may present themselves the necessity of the application of strict business principles to the work in hand is of the greatest importance.

We receive to-day the property of this city, the accumulation of many years and representing the labor and energy of many administrations. This property comes to us as a trust to be cared for, to be improved, and to be added to as opportunity may offer or necessity may demand. In all our endeavors let us be actuated by unselfish motives and impelled by the desire to preserve and improve.

We are called upon to foster the interests and comfort of the people of the city and in the performance of this duty let us be guided by such principles as will tend to a fair, just and economical administration; ambitious to establish such a degree of contentment and pride in every citizen that he will exert his energy to advance and uplift the material and moral condition of the city.

In the various changes as will be necessary in the management of affairs as provided for in the charter, close application to the work is urgent and we must resolve to give the required time and effort, at even personal sacrifice, to properly and intelligently attain the fullest measure of success. Starting as the first workers under the new charter we have our own way to make, and it is our duty, in return for the confidence reposed in us, to work in a spirit of harmony, with the desire to make, after careful consideration and deliveration, such rules and regulations as will benefit the greatest number.

The liabilities of the City as by the latest audit are $891,404.01 and the resources are $365,171.41, showing a net debt of $526,232.60. Included in the assets are items of uncollected taxes for the years 1911, 1912 and 1913 aggregating $29,562.31. This amount should be reduced to $5,000., creating a net debt of $550,794.91. Precedent shows that collections after one year are very small and surely an unproductive asset is of little or no value as such.

In conformity with Section 50 Revised Charter a new appraisal and a new statement of liabilities will be made and from this tabulation a new basis will be formed for our guidance.

We come to our trust with the management of the important departments,—the fire, police, schools and public works,—provided for, and it will be our duty to furnish them, as well as the minor departments, with such monies as may be necessary for conducting their respective affairs in an economical yet efficient manner.

We should in a particular manner consider this subject of economy and efficiency. We are called upon to administer to the needs of the several departments but they, as well as we, should understand that the greatest benefit is derived from expenditures well directed and carefully distributed. However strong our desire may be for modern conveniences and equipment and however eager we may be to give the greatest accommodation to our citizens, our condition demands that we must first determine a method of accumulation through taxation which shall regulate the limit to which we may go in our desires. In other words the amount of income justly derived from our assessed valuation should control the expenditures rather than that the amounts expended establish the rate of taxation.

The total raised in taxes in the year 1909 was $354,960. and the amount raised in 1914 was $453,479. showing an approximate increase of $100,000. in the year 1914 over the amount raised in 1909. The tax rate in 1909 was 2.17 and in 1914, 2.00, but in 1912 the total valuation, through the demands of the State Tax Commission, was increased from $17,000,000. to $22,000,000. in round numbers. These figures are startling in the extreme as showing the tendency toward large expenditure, while the growth in population has been comparatively small, and their consideration should encourage us to urge that in requesting appropriations for this year the departments hold themselves to such amounts as will insure efficiency but not extravagance, in the confidence that the good citizen will applaud the endeavor for retrenchment and assist in the laudable desire to "live within our means."

With no desire to be pessimistic it is necessary for us to call attention to this condition in order that we may guard our action and lend our best efforts to solve the problem to economize and still not impair the efficiency of our service. This subject interests all from the modest house holder to the factory owned, from the retailer to the wholesaler and we should remember that the strongest magnet to attract capital to any community is the low tax rate, based upon moderate valuation and coupled with good accommodation. We are entering upon a period of readjustment and our aim should be not so much a discontinuance of facilities already enjoyed as to the careful and frugal management of our affairs.

I urge an early consideration of this matter so that when the annual budget is made up in February a proper understanding may exist of the requirements. It should be emphatically impressed upon the several departments that no over-drawing of appropriations will be permitted, and if careful consideration be given to the appropriations made, and the rule of no overdraft strictly adhered to, much good will result and much trouble be averted.

Alone, very little can be accomplished, but with united and harmonious effort, and with the assistance of a good public sentiment, much progress will be made to the satisfaction of ourselves and the good of the community. Let us then proceed with the duties imposed upon us, and as by our oath, act justly, impartially and fearlessly.

Revision of the City Charter.

Under the provisions of a Resolution passed by the City Councils in the month of June 1912, a Charter Commission was chosen, composed of thirteen citizens, including the Mayor, four chosen by the City Councils, four chosen by the Board of Trade and four by the Central Labor Union.

This Commission held public hearings at which many of the voters made known their views in relation to Charter revision and after much deliberation a majority of the Commission presented a Charter to the Legislature for consideration known as plan One. The minority also presented a Charter known as plan Two. The Legislature submitted both plans to the people of the City of Nashua at a special election held June 10, 1913. The questions as submitted appeared upon the Official Ballot as follows;

FIRST QUESTION.

Shall the present Charter of the City of Nashua be repealed?

Yes.

No.

SECOND QUESTION.

If the present Charter of the City is repealed shall the new Charter be

Plan 1 (Single board, Non-Partisan.)

Plan 2 (Dual Board, Partisan.)

The result of the special election was as follows:

Yes	1785
No	1015

Majority for repeal 770.

Plan 1	1707
Plan 2	913
Majority Plan 1	749.

At a special meeting of the City Councils held June 12, 1913 the old charter was declared repealed and Plan 1 was declared adopted as the Charter of the City of Nashua.

Some of the radical changes in the new Charter were the following:

Election separate from the State election.

Nomination by petition.

No party designations.

Election of Board of Public Works and Fire Commission by the people.

Women allowed to vote for Board of Education.

Preferential Ballot.

Common Council abolished, superceded by single body consisting of 6 Aldermen-at-Large and one Alderman from each Ward.

City officers elected by viva voce vote.

Recall.

Initiative.

General Municipal Election.

The first Municipal Election under the new Charter was held December eighth 1914, the polls were opened at 6 a. m. and closed in most cases at 3 p. m.

The results as returned by the Ward Officials to the City Clerk were as follows:

Fire Alarm Telegraph

This branch of the service is now in perfect condition except the placing of wires in ducts located by N. E. T. & T. Company in place of overhead wires, which work is progressing as fast as ducts are laid.

Instructions to Key Holders and Citizens

1. Upon the discovery of a fire, go to the nearest box, break glass in key box, place key in lock, turn. And hold back with key as it is a spring lock. Pull down the hook as far as it will go; shut the door. Do not try to remove key, as it is locked in, and can only be removed by the engineers only.

2. All persons should remain near the box so as to direct the Firemen to the fire.

3. No person will give an alarm for the same fire after the first alarm has been given without an order from the engineer or the officer in command. And the person so ordered will be sure to go to the same box from which the first alarm was given and report to the engineer.

4. Never signal for a fire seen at a distance; never touch a box except to give an alarm of fire. Do not give an alarm for a chimney or grass fire. But notify Central or nearest fire station by telephone.

Apparatus and Hose

The Board of Public Works has during the last four years met with considerable success with the construction of bituminous macadam roads. The first roadway of this kind was constructed in 1911 on South Main Street, from Salmon Brook Bridge to Lawndale. This roadway was given a blanket coat of Tarvia A and either peastone or sand in 1912. It has required no maintenance expense since that time. In 1913 the roadway was continued from Salmon Brook Bridge northerly to the Colonial Theater.

Concord Street was also constructed in like manner in the same year. In 1914 these two highways were given a blanket coat with success.

Last year Kinsley Street from Pine Street to the St Joseph's Hospital and West Hollis Street from Elm Street to the Woodlawn Cemetery was constructed in the same manner.

We respectfully recommend that the new Board give these two highways a blanket coat of Tarvia A and peastone the coming summer.

Respectfully submitted,

The Board of Public Works.

REPORT OF MILK INSPECTOR

NASHUA, N. H., MAY 1, 1915.

TO THE BOARD OF HEALTH OF THE CITY OF NASHUA:—

GENTLEMEN:—I submit below my report as Milk Inspector of the City of Nashua for the year ending Dec. 31, 1914.

Licenses.

The total amount of licenses issued during the year was (94). But owing to the regulations of the city milk ordinance which states those who sell that milk which they produce must be issued a license but same will be granted free gratis of the 94 issued 14 licenses was of that order making total paid licenses (80) the sum realized being $160. This sum has been turned send to the City Treasurer.

Examinations.

During the year several samples have been collected and examined by me and in no case did I find evidence of adulterations or preservatives being used. Each sample was examined for the percentage butter fat and also for the amount of total solids present.

Ice Cream.

The ice cream sold in this City during the year was found to up to the standard and free from adulterants. This city is very fortunate in having such good milk supply and is up to the general average of other cities.

Respectfully submitted,

TIMOTHY W. O'TOOLE, V. S.

REPORT OF THE PARK COMMISSIONERS

---

TO HIS HONOR THE MAYOR, AND THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN OF
THE CITY OF NASHUA:

GENTLEMEN: The Park Commissioners make the following report for the year ending Dec. 31, 1914.

Greeley Park.

Greeley Park continues to be one of the beauty spots of Nashua. It is now generally understood that there is a competent care taker at the Park from May until October, and because of this the number of people who visit here for an outing are increasing each year. It is the endeavor of the commissioners to keep this place as neat as possible. There has been no rowdiness as our care taker is a special officer and is there to look after the welfare of all. The transplanting of trees has continued as in the past years so that the Park is becoming a very attractive place. The Rest House and the clear spring water are appreciated by all who are privileged to visit this resting place.

South Common.

The Park Commissioners still have in mind that the time will come when there will be an up-to-date playground in this part of the city and are planning with this end in view, as to the planting of trees and the making of walks. The iron rail fence has been painted during the year. The Commission was at considerable expense during the summer months by being compelled to water the younger trees to keep them from burning up because of the lack of rain.

North Common.

A beginning has been made towards a good walk and a substantial iron fence the entire length on Amherst Street. A good cinder walk, four feet wide and a foot deep has been made almost the entire distance. The iron posts are of a very attractive design, and when ready will be set in cement so as to keep them in position for many years to come. These improvements will be appreciated by all who have occasion to pass by this part of our Park System. We hope to complete the work the coming season.

Other Squares.

These several breathing places have had their usual care. The lawns have had special care, and the refuse taken care of.

Moth Work.

The removal of Browntail Moths from trees along the streets by clipping has been cared for as in former years. The spraying for the Elm Beetles was continued this year, and we are please to note that this pest seems to be on the decline. The Gypsy Moths are on the increase. This pest now takes the larger part of our appropriation. We feel the loss of the assistance of the United State Government in helping to stamp out this great pest. The cost of caring for the Moth work is far less than any city of the size of Nashua that the Commissioners know anything about.

Needs.

The needs of our Park System are many for a city like Nashua. The commissioners endeavor to make every move tell. Every improvement is made according to a carefully made plan.

Respectfully submitted,

HENRY H. DAVIS,

HERBERT E. KENDALL

Commissioners.

R E P O R T
OF THE
POLICE COMMISSIONERS
OF THE CITY OF NASHUA, N. H.
1914.

TO HIS HONOR, THE MAYOR, AND THE HONORABLE BOARD OF ALDERMEN OF NASHUA, NASHUA, N. H.

GENTLEMEN: Enclosed please find a detailed report of the number of arrests, disposition of same, incidental services etc., of the Police Department for the year 1914.

When the Commission sent you their budget on Jan. 23rd., for the current year, they stated "We have not asked this year for an appropriation necessary to enable Nashua to maintain the department it should properly have, but have asked for funds necessary, only to maintain the present department."

The Commission believe it necessary to add two night patrolmen to the department. but were given to understand that their appropriation for the current year would have to be practically the same as last year, so they did not increase their budget $2000.00 to make these two appointments. However some provision should be made by your Honorable Board so this increase can be given the Police Department next year.

Yours truly,

REPORT OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The Executive Committee of the Nashua Hospital Association submits the following report for the year ending Dec. 31, 1914:

At a meeting of the Association held early in the year, it was voted to begin the construction of a new hospital building with the fund left for that purpose by the late Dr. George F. Wilbur. The architects' plans selected by your Committee and approved at a meeting of the Trustees, call for an entirely new and complete Hospital structure of hollow tile with terra cotta finish; and a nurses home and an isolation building remodeled from the old hospital buildings moved to the lot facing Dearborn St.

The Hospital work was closed accordingly June 1. The matron and all employes except the clerk had been given, one month's notice to enable them to secure other positions. Of the nurses in the training school

Four were graduated.

Three placed in the Floating Hospital, Boston.

Two placed in the Lowell General Hospital, Lowell.

Three placed in the Elliott Hospital, Manchester.

Two placed in the Contagious Hospital, Worcester.

One placed in the Margaret Pillsbury Hospital, Concord.

One placed in the N. H. Memorial Hospital, Concord.

One placed in St Joseph's Hospital, Nashua.

The clerk Miss Baxter, continues in service and is on duty at the office of the Hospital.

The work for five months is summerized as follows:

The work on the new Hospital is well under way and is progressing as rapidly as conditions will permit. The cost of special features in the plans is far in excess of estimates submitted and it is not likely that the original ideas can be carried out within the present building fund. Some effort should be made to secure additional bequests or donations to complete, furnish and help maintain this institution which the Building Committee feel will be a model Hospital plant.

Respectfully submitted,

A. W. SHEA,

Chairman.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON TRAINING SCHOOL FOR NURSES

---

Last June when the Memorial Hospital closed its doors, for the purpose of erecting a new main building, the training school had 13 pupils in attendance.

Six of these had recently graduated but had not put in quite their full time of service. Three of them we placed, for a post graduate course, in the floating hospital for children, in Boston harbor, two in the Isolation hospital in Worcester and one at the Elliott hospital, Manchester.

Of the under graduates, the Elliott Hospital took three and later one was transferred to St. Joseph's hospital of this city.

The Lowell General took two, one was placed at the New Hampshire Memorial Hospital, Concord and the other at the Margaret Pillsbury, with the agreement that such as had not served their full time should come back to the hospital when it reopens. If the Memorial is not finished till the late summer there will be only four nurses to re-enter. Those who have graduated in the meantime at the other hospitals, have expressed a wish that they might receive a diploma from the Memorial also, and our committee would suggest that they might be allowed a post graduate course of two months and then given their diploma.

This would work out well for us as well as the nurses as it would give us a better supply of trained care for the patients. It not being advisable to begin the hospital work with too great a proportion of probationers.

We would suggest that this would be a good time to extend the course of training to 30 months as was proposed last year, part of which time might be allowed on special work.

This increase of the time of training is made necessary by the requirements of the state board of registration.

Hitherto our full complement of nurses has numbered 15; with the enlargement of the hospital that number should be doubled, so as to give us a supply of nurses for special work both inside the hospital and if desired to send out occasionally, for private nursing; the training school thus contributing something to its own support. During the winter and spring the nurses had weekly lectures from some member of the staff and four classes weekly with the Matron.

One great need in the past has been the lack of instructions in dietetics. As suitable and properly prepared food is essential to the welfare of the sick, we hope in the future to give a thorough training in this very important subject. We feel that our recent graduates though handicapped by lack of modern hospital equipment, are doing good work, and we hope to keep the school up to its present high standard.

Our thanks are due to the hospitals who so kindly have helped by admitting our nurses when our own school was closed, thus enabling them to continue their training without loss of time.

Respectfully submitted, for the Committee,

E. B. ATHERTON, Chairman

ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

BOARD OF HEALTH

TO HIS HONOR THE MAYOR, AND THE HONORABLE CITY COUNCILS

GENTLEMEN: The Board of Health submit their report for the year ending Dec. 31, 1914.

During the year numerous complaints in regard to nuisances were received and promptly attended to.

The total number of contagious diseases during the year was 53, of this number there was 16 cases of Diphtheria with three deaths, 36 cases of Scarlet fever with no deaths, 8 cases of measles, no deaths, and three cases of Poliomyelitis.

Scarlet Fever made its appearance in January. It was of such an extremely mild type that many cases escaped detection until desquamation was established. No doubt the disease was prolonged in our city by this fact.

Our chief aid in the prevention of contagious and communicable diseases is medical inspection of our schools. Our public schools are provided for by the Board of Education. This Board most earnestly recommends the introduction of medical inspection of the pupils in the private schools of our city in order to increase the efficiency of its work.

No year goes by without more or less complaint about the numerous nuisances of the city rubbish dumps petitions and individual appeals have been made to the Board concerning the Amherst Street dump, this is not a new matter and every year becomes a more important problem. The Board of Public Works maintain a man on the dump who cares for perishable material. At best Dumps are a breeding place for flies, rats, and all sorts of deleterious odors which of course are a menace to public health. This board solicits the cooperation of the other city departments, the Board of Aldermen and citizens in a joint working out of some proper sanitary and economical means of disposing of the city waste.

The Board asks the most earnest cooperation of the bakers, market men, grocers, milk men, restaurant and hotel keepers in carrying out the sanitary food laws of our state.

During the summer months many complaints are received concerning unclean conditions in the stables of our city, and the Board suggest that some sanitary regulations concerning the care and disposal of manure be enacted in order that these nuisances can be properly adjusted.

The Isolation Hospital has been repaired during the year, the beds, bedding and linen were in such an un-sanitary condition that they were condemned by the Board and burned. This will necessitate a complete refurnishing of the Institution. The Hospital is not supplied with running water and other facilities which are necessary to properly care for patients suffering with Small Pox.

The Board recommends that these conditions be remedied at once.

The whole number of deaths reported during the year was as follows:

Librarian's Report

To the Trustees of the Nashua Public Library:

GENTLEMEN: I have the honor of submitting to you the report of the Library for the year 1914.

The Library met with a great loss, when Miss Crombie gave up the faithful care she had given it for twenty-five years, and which has brought this Library, to a merited high standing with Libraries of its size.

The increasing patronage of the children's room presents the grave question of how to care for it in the present room.

The Library has been open 303 days, closed Sundays and legal holidays as usual, and Tuesday and Thursday afternoons and evenings, through July and August. The Reading Rooms were also closed on Sundays in these months.

63,389 books have been loaned in the main Library. Not a large increase over last year.

The largest day in this room was March 14 when 441 books were given out. The smallest day was June 25 when 101 books went out.

415 new patrons have been added making the number of borrowers in the main room 4369.

Upon the shelves in the children's room are 2960 volumes, with a circulation of 26,303 a gain of 3500 this year. 427 new applications have been received making the number of borrowers in the children's room 1552.

The total number of books taken during the year from both rooms is 89,692 a gain of 3967 over 1913.

The largest day's circulation was 569 books, and the smallest 133. Total applications filed 842, making in all 5919 people using the Library.

106 Periodicals have been regularly received, 23 being given. There are 883 volumes in the Reference Room.

At the beginning of 1914 there were 32,273 volumes in the Library not including Government documents and pamphlets. During the year there have been added by purchase 879 volumes, by gift, 40, by binding of Periodicals and Newspapers 87 making the number of volumes now 33,279.

The foreign books have a good circulation for the small number we have. These books are in number as follows:

In Yiddish 11 books, circulation 47; Italian 4 books, circulation 5; Polish 20 books, circulation 121; Lithuanian 22 books circulation 102; Modern Greek 13 books, circulation 28.

70 volumes in all with a circulation of 303. These peoples are very appreciative of the Library. Many Greek patrons have not returned since the war.

There are 542 well worn French books in the Library with a circulation of 1789.

Respectfully submitted,

SARAH P. BARKER,

Librarian

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT

---

To the Board of Education of Nashua:

Your Superintendent, in accordance with the rules, submits herewith his twenty-second report, the forty-eighth of its series.

Parents and the Schools. Comparatively few citizens ever take the trouble to enter and make an examination at first hand of our public schools. They do not hesitate to point out this or that condition which they believe to be wrong but, when asked upon what they base their conclusions, they will, if they are honest, admit that their criticisms are almost entirely theoretical; that they have no real knowledge of the actual working of the school system.

The above statement applies to our own city in spite of the fact that the parents and the citizens of Nashua show an unusual interest in education. During the past year the records show that nearly 2,700 visits were made to our public schools. This seems a large number but, when we consider that there are nearly one hundred school rooms, it means that there were less than thirty visits per room a year; or, in other words, only about one a week. If parents alone did their full duty in this particular, they would visit the schools often enough to obtain a clear conception of their children's progress and a reasonable knowledge of actual school conditions. It is only in this way that intelligent criticisms can be given.

Why is it asking too much of fathers and mothers to visit their children's school at least once a month? Why is it that a mother can find plenty of time for clubs, socials, shopping, etc., and yet find it impossible, by the inspiration of an occasional visit, to assist the teacher, who has charge of the mental welfare of her child.

The fathers, also, instead of depending upon the monthly report cards or the written work which is occasionally brought home for inspection, should make an effort to visit school and see the living conditions under which their children are being trained. I believe that if parents and citizens could have a clear picture of the public schools and what they are accomplishing, it would do more for the uplift of our educational institutions than any other one thing.

The teachers are courteous, they welcome visitors cordially, they are glad to have them come and they are perfectly willing to discuss educational problems. Just why there is such apathy among intelligent citizens toward visiting and viewing the public school machine in actual operation it is difficult to understand; especially, when there is so much apparent interest in the abstract theories of education. Papers and periodicals discuss freely the failures of schools along this line, or their excellence along that, their undue emphasis upon this point or their lack of training in that. In fact, there is much academic discussion of the schools, but there is little real knowledge of the schools themselves.

New Building. I regret to say that I shall be obliged to again repeat my recommendation for a new building on the Spring Street lot. In my last two reports I have explained the reasons why we need this building. It seems, therefore, unnecessary to repeat the arguments which are even more forceful now than when they were first presented.

I will simply state that if tomorrow we had an eight room building on the Spring Street lot we could utilize to advantage every one of the eight rooms. Our Manual Training Department is handicapped for lack of proper quarters. I believe that it would be unwise to erect anything less than a twelve room building and I should recommend that a committee be appointed from the Board of Education to bring this matter to the attention of the Mayor and Board of Aldermen for the purpose of urging upon them the need of immediate action in regard to this matter.

Suburban Schools. I would also call your attention to the need of two new suburban school buildings; one at number seven, in the so called John Howe district, and one at number three, known as Gilboa district.

Both of these schools are overcrowded and are of the box trap type, familiar to the hillsides of New Hampshire a hundred years ago. In fact, so far as I am able to learn, both of these buildings have already passed the century mark.

The fact is obvious and needs no discussion that, if we are to maintain these suburban schools, we should house the children under proper sanitary conditions. The pupils in the outlying districts have as much right to good light and ventilation as do the children in the thickly populated part of the city. We should not ask them to sit huddled in a close, ill-ventilated, stove heated room totally lacking in modern equipment any more than we should require our high school pupils to go back to the conditions of the "old brick" which used to ornament the north side of Pearl street.

Fire Escapes. It may be well to mention the erection, on the north side of the Spring Street school, of the new fire escape, which was authorized last summer by the building committee in accordance with the recommendation of the fire commissioners. It affords adequate protection from fires not only to the pupils on the third floor but to those on the first and second floors as well. This matter of fire protection can not be considered too carefully, and it is my belief that, while most of our buildings are properly equipped in this particular, there are one or two schools where improvements might be made to advantage. I would suggest that the fire commissioners be invited to make a thorough investigation of the school buildings in order to get their approval or disapproval of the present conditions.

The fire drill is practiced regularly in all of our schools. Such facility has been acquired that the children empty the schools buildings in a surprisingly short space of time. I believe that in case of actual fire these drills would serve the purpose for which they were intended and that both pupils and teachers would file out in order and without undue excitement.

Stereopticons. All of our largest buildings are now equipped with lanterns by which either lantern slides or pictures may be thrown upon a screen. These lanterns are an indispensable outfit in the modern grammar school for the proper development of geography and history. Through their means foreign countries and distant parts of our own country are made real to the child and the study of geography thereby becomes full of interest to the wide awake pupil. Moreover, in history the pictures of historic places render this important subject alive to the child; so that, instead of thinking of history as a number of printed pages bound with covers, he can, through his imagination, live through and experience the struggles of our forefathers, until the value of his birthright as an American citizen may be brought home to him with greater force than it can be done in any other way.

President Eliot made the statement twenty years ago that the time would come when the schools would as soon think of getting along without a teacher as without a stereopticon; and certainly its value from an educational point of view can not be denied.

Room for Abnormal children. I wish to bring to your notice again the need for separating the abnormal children from the normal. I have not made a canvass of the city to find how many children would naturally fall into this class, but in my judgment, if we had a room at our disposal for the purpose, there might be collected a class of fifteen or twenty children, who could improve immensely through a carefully planned course of instruction, under a competent and sympathetic teacher.

In Newton, where this scheme has been in operation for a number of years, it has worked most successfully. Superintendent Spaulding, in his report for 1913, speaks as follows in regard to its operation.

"The work they are given to do, and the manner in which they are treated is adapted to their peculiar needs. Such powers as they have are encouraged and trained—and in some cases with surprisingly gratifying results; several children from this special school are now in the high schools and are profiting by the instruction there. All are taught to do what they can; their own self-support, complete or partial, is a distinctive aim. The girls learn to sew, set table, wash dishes, make rugs and baskets; the boys learn to tap and mend shoes, to weave rugs and tapestries on looms, to make baskets and hampers of reed, to use carpenter's tools, to cane chairs. Instead of abandoning school in discouragement as soon as the law allows,—as the predecessors of this type of children have almost invariably done,—these children today go out from this special school, usually not until they are advised, urged, or even compelled to do so by the school authorities, but then with some ambition and self-confidence, with the fixed habit of success."

Evening Schools. The Evening Schools this year opened even more successfully than they did a year ago. We have enrolled a total of 370 pupils. To take care of this number of pupils we have eleven teachers; three in the high school department, four in the middle grades, four in the primary department, and one in the mechanical drawing department.

The commercial classes in the high school and the mechanical drawing classes are doing excellent work along their lines, but, of course, the important factor in the evening school is the training of the men and women of foreign birth. When one considers that these people are employed each day in some gainful work, the fact that they are willing to sacrifice four evenings a week in the struggle for an education throws a strong light upon the character of the men and women who constitute the evening school classes. The work which they are doing is not easy; they are acquiring what is to them a foreign language. It calls for the highest quality of perseverance and concentration to attack this difficult problem. They learn not only to read English but to understand the meaning of English expressions. Great praise is due the teachers who have charge of the evening school department. They have evinced the deepest interest in their work and the excellent results achieved are owing, in large measure, to their enthusiasm in the work.

Writing. During the past year the teachers below the high school have been taking a course in the so called Palmer system of writing. This has required a vast amount of time and effort on the part of the individual teachers and is another proof of their devotion to their work. Practically all have now been granted a diploma of efficiency from the Palmer Company, and the writing in the schools is already showing the influence of this concentrated and unified effort toward its improvement. It is too early to look for great results, but I am confident that the penmanship of our pupils is now placed upon a thoroughly scientific foundation.

Kindergartens. The first kindergarten in Nashua was started twenty years ago in the school building on East Pearl Street. The work of that school proved so popular that the Board of Education received from time to time petitions signed by citizens in different parts of the city requesting that new kindergartens be opened in their several districts. These petitions have been granted until now we have eight kindergartens in various parts of the city. Although they are doing excellent work those attended by the children of our foreign speaking population are particularly useful to the community. Therefore, I should like to recommend that another kindergarten be established to take care of that section in the immediate vicinity of High street.

It is my opinion that the kindergartens and the evening schools are a most efficient means of leading our foreign population toward a higher type of citizenship.

Military Training. Several years ago the Nashua High School maintained a military organization known as the Nashua High School Cadets. The cadets were well drilled but in some respects the organization was faulty. It is needless, at this point, to go into the history of why it was deemed wise by the school officials to disband this military company and to take the study of military tactics entirely out of the curriculum of high school subjects. It became difficult, after it was once started, to organize the company on a more practical basis.

I believe however, that the time is coming when all secondary schools and colleges will not only be requested but ordered to maintain some kind of military organization. We should not wait to apply the lessons made obvious by the present European struggle. It is evident that the days of warfare are not ended, and that with a republican form of government our military strength must lie in training the youth of the country to be reasonable efficient soldiers and officers.

I would suggest, therefore, that a company of cadets be formed and a competent instructor be employed to teach them the rudiments of military drill.

Special Teachers. The recommendations of our special instructors in music, drawing, manual training, cooking, domestic science, and medical inspection will be found in another part of this report. I should like to say, however, that excellent results are being obtained in all of these departments. The quality of work shown by the pupils in manual training, domestic science, and sewing is remarkable when one considers the short time that these subjects have been taught in our schools.

In concluding this report, I wish to express my appreciation of the loyal support accorded me by the corps of teachers and by the members of this Board of Education.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES H. FASSETT.

Report of Principal of the High School

---

Nashua, N. H., Jan. 22, 1915.

In compliance with the rules of the Board of Education I submit my annual report.

During the past year the body of teachers has changed but little in this school as compared with many schools. The increase of work in the boys' industrial department called for more help and Mr. Fred O. Fuller, who had been an instructor in the grades in Nashua, now does most of this teaching with High School boys. Miss May E. Gould resigned during the summer, having accepted a position with a larger salary in a school in Salida, Colorado. Miss Elizabeth E. Allen was selected to take her place in the English department here. One teacher who left us within a few years is now receiving more than two and a half times her salary when in Nashua.

The following table shows the number of pupils enrolled this year in each subject:

English Literature	417
English Composition, individual instruction	160
English Composition, class instruction	257
History	234
Latin	105
French	254
German	66
Algebra	153

Political Economy and Commercial Law	48
Commercial Arithmetic	44
Harmony and History of Music	10
Shopwork	70
Mechanical Drawing	67
Freehand Drawing	13
Household Arts	24

Five of the Class of 1914 returned to our school for further study and at least nine others entered schools which do not require for admission, the completion of four years' work in a secondary school. These with the thirty-four who are in higher institutions make more than half of the class of 1914 continuing their studies after graduating.

The number of our graduates who entered higher institutions of learning this year with only the preparation obtained in this city is thirty-five. They are distributed as follows:

- Five in Keene Normal School
- Three in Plymouth Normal School
- Two in Lowell Normal School
- One in the Posse Gymnasium School
- One in Sargent's School of Physical Training
- One in Syracuse University
- One in Middlebury College
- One in Colgate College
- One in Worcester Polytechnic Institute
- One in Colby College
- One in Bates College
- One in New Hampshire College
- One in Harvard College

One in Wellesley College
One in Radcliffe College
One in Mount Holyoke College
One in Western College, Oxford, Ohio
Two in Boston University
Two in Massachusetts Institute of Technology
Two in Dartmouth College
Two in Norwich University
Three in Simmons College

In order to accommodate more completely the different classes of citizens patronizing the High School it was decided by the School Board that the baccalaureate exercises should be held hereafter in the City Hall and therefore last June, for the first time, the members of the graduating class and their friends assembled one Sunday afternoon in the City Hall to hold a religious service together. Rev. Matthew Creamer had accepted an invitation to make the address on that occasion and the hall was completely filled with those who came to listen to the speaker and to see the young people who were just completing their studies in the public schools of the city. The class numbered ninety-one, sixteen more than the largest class that had ever been graduated. Professor Marshall L. Perrin of Boston University made the principal address on graduation day.

At the close of the fall term the senior class presented the play, "The Private Secretary," in the Colonial Theater. The music on this occasion was furnished in a most creditable manner by the school orchestra of eight pieces. The work on the stage was so well done that it earned praise for all in school who had anything to do with the affair. The number of tickets sold was 682. It might be well next year to have the senior play given two nights in the High School hall or in City Hall. Much expense might be saved by such an arrangement.

Through the kindness of a friend of the school, one who is not a dealer in musical instruments, a victrola has been recently loaned to the school, probably for a long period. It is expected that this will be a very great help in the work in music.

We have recently obtained a reflectoscope which ought to find use in many subjects. We are expecting a filing cabinet to be placed in the principal's office in the near future. Since 1905 the permanent record of scholarship, attendance, and deportment has been kept on cards instead of in books. Over 2000 pupils have been registered in this short period. The new filing cabinet will contain, among other compartments, a convenient receptacle for these records which are frequently consulted, even after a pupil has been out of school a number of years.

The registration during the first term of the school year 1914-15 numbers 422. Rather more than one-half of these, or exactly 219, are boys. The preponderance of boys may be partly due to the shopwork which is enjoyed by them and this is the first year in which we have had this kind of work in all four classes. The pupils are grouped in the different courses as follows:

Graduate students	5
Special students	7
General Course students	74
Industrial Course students	79
Commercial Course students	119
Latin Courses	138

Not all of the latter are now studying Latin.

The percent of attendance is almost ninety-seven for the whole school for the first twelve weeks. The number of tuition pupils is fifty-three this year.

The boys of the Industrial Department have done several pieces of work about the premises such as building a strong gate to close the driveway at the south side of the building, and increasing and improving the appliances used in the lunch department.

November 17, 1914 the serving of lunches at recess was taken over from the janitor by the girls' Industrial Department under the direction of Miss Pillsbury. The food is cooked at the kitchen in the Spring Street School and is brought to our building by some of the older boys. All the work of preparing, serving, and clearing up was done by pupils and teachers for the first month. Now we have a woman to help in the work for about two hours a day. We expect to pay all the operating expenses out of the receipts for food. Two or three hot dishes are served each day. The cost of each article sold, except sweet chocolate, is one, two, or three cents. One boy and one girl sell lunch counter tickets fifteen minutes before school and during recess. The purchasing of materials is done by Miss Pillsbury and for the first month the money received from selling lunches was counted and deposited in a bank through the principal's office. At present all the accounting is done under the supervision of Mrs. Nesmith by one of the classes in bookkeeping. This gives these pupils a little actual business. The sales have averaged $6.96 a day. The advantages from the new arrangement are twofold. First the girls who are learning to cook now have a good-sized task which is worth doing and the young cooks are no longer obliged to divide one egg into six portions. Second, the boys and girls who eat lunches now receive better food than was obtained from a bakery.

I close this report with sincere thanks to all who have helped the school during the last year.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES H. NOYES.

REPORT OF DIRECTOR OF MUSIC

---

Nashua, N. H., January 1, 1915.

MR. JAMES H. FASSETT, SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS:

DEAR SIR:

With this the eighteenth annual report of the Director of Music, since the present incumbency, I shall briefly state what has been accomplished during the last year.

The course in music in our schools finds its ultimate test in the product of the High school, and in this school is now maintained a course that is said by eminent musical educators to have no superior in the country, with its course in musical theory, history and appreciation, with the excellent work of the chorus at the annual music festivals, which have been carried on for fifteen years, at which the best standard choral works are produced with the assistance of professional soloists from New York and Boston, and the Boston Festival orchestra.

This work has attracted such wide-spread attention that musicians from far and near attend the festival each year, to observe what the results of such serious studies in a high school can accomplish, and the verdict has invariably been that the results are marvelous. The Director has now before him a letter from Leonard Liebbling of New York, editor in chief of the Musical Courier, in which this eminent editor states that he will come to Nashua to attend the annual music festival in May. This in itself is proof that this work of the High School has achieved national prominence. It is the only high school in the United States that carries on the work in a professional manner, and where the students are brought in contact with the best talent in the country.

To achieve these results the work in the grades below the High school is carried on in a consistent and thoroughly musical way, with enthusiasm and enjoyment. The best material is used in all the grades, and in the High school oratorios and standard cantatas are studied.

At the fourteenth annual festival, in City hall, last May, the High School chorus produced the opera, "Martha," by von Flo-tow, with Louise MacMahan of New York, soprano; Mildred Potter of New York, contralto; Dan Beddce of New York, tenor; Bernard Ferguson of Boston, baritone, and Percy Rector Stephens of New York, bass. The Boston Festival orchestra played several standard numbers beside furnishing the instrumental music in the opera. The performance was successful beyond anything ever attempted in this city.

The High school has now in preparation two of the master-pieces of musical literature, namely "Hiawatha's Wedding Feast," and "The Death of Minnehaha," composed by S. Cole-ridge-Taylor, for soloists, chorus and orchestra. For this per-formance, May 13, 1915, the soloists already are Dorothy May-nard of New York, soprano; Mildred Potter of New York, con-tralto; Reinald Werrenrath, the famous New York baritone, and Paul Althouse, tenor of the New York Metropolitan Opera House. The Boston Festival orchestra will again play.

The primary and the grammar grades are doing the work in a consistent and thorough manner, and the tone quality in all the grades is excellent. The pupils enjoy the singing and the study of musical theory, and much good is achieved in this en-thusiastic way of working.

To you, Mr. Superintendent, to the Board of Education, the committee on music and to the teachers I am duly grateful for the kind co-operation and help in the work.

Respectfully submitted,

EUSEBIUS G. HOOD,

Director of Music.

REPORT OF DIRECTOR OF DRAWING

JAMES H. FASSETT, SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS:

DEAR SIR:

The work of the drawing department has progressed satisfactorily during the past year. There have been no important changes in the course of study therefore I am going to take this opportunity to report to you the number of pictures and casts hanging on the walls of the grammar and primary school rooms, and to make some remarks and suggestions regarding them.

There are in all three hundred and ninety-six pictures and fifty-eight casts. The casts are chiefly busts and bas-reliefs and are not part of the collections of casts owned by the drawing department. The pictures cover a great variety of subjects, and include landscapes, views of historic buildings and places, figure and animal pictures and portraits of men, famous in history and literature. The favorite hero is Washington. He is represented thirty-four times. Lincoln comes next in favor, represented twenty-three times. Two hundred and fifty-four of the pictures, and most of the casts were bought with money raised by the teachers and pupils. The total cost of the pictures was $849.73, making the average price $3.34. The most expensive picture cost $20.00, the cheapest cost $1.00. I could not discover the price of the casts. The remaining one hundred and forty-two pictures came to us from a variety of sources, the Woman's Club, the Relief Corps, the Aetna Insurance Company, the Board of Education, Larkin's Soap Company, a yeast cake company, teachers and friends. Of course I do not know the value of these pictures, but I should say that they average higher in cost than those in the other group. Those given by the Board of Education as prizes for excellence in penmanship are particularly good. The subjects are well chosen, they are well framed, and are large enough to be seen from all parts of a school room. I know that they are appreciated by the teachers and pupils.

The foregoing statements show that our school room decoration is liberal in its amount, but as the average cost of each picture, including the frame, is only $3.34, I think our object in the future should be to improve the general excellence of the collection. To take down or discard some of the oldest, poorest, and least suitable pictures would be a great help towards this end, and the fact is that when a teacher comes to a room she feels that she has no authority to interfere with any picture hung there by her predecessor, and so old and worthless pictures remain hanging on the schoolroom walls indefinitely. I suggest that teachers be given permission to dispose of any unworthy picture which has hung on a schoolroom wall fifteen or more years. That would surely be doing no injustice to the giver.

The teachers have helped me gather the facts which I present in this report, and I thank them for their assistance.

Respectfully submitted,

ELIZABETH L. BUCKINGHAM.

Report of Director of Manual Training

---

MR. JAMES H. FASSETT, SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS:

DEAR SIR:

In compliance with the rules and regulations of the School Board, I submit my Fifth Annual Report.

Every year as the time arrives to write my Annual Report I am confronted with practically the same problem. From the many interesting features connected with the department and the problems associated with them, what shall I select that will be of most interest to you, the School Board, and for future reference.

First, I might mention the hiring of Mr. John M. Palmer, a graduate of the Boston Sloyd School, as an assistant in the department to take charge of all the sixth, seventh, and eighth grade classes. This addition to the teaching force relieved Mr. Fuller of these classes, which time he is now devoting to High School work.

The above made possible the adoption of the four year Industrial course in the High School, which was approved by the School Board last May.

During the month of June the department purchased through local concerns the following:

- One 14" 6' Flather Engine Lathe (quick change gear)

- Four Hand Power Forges

- Four Anvils (110 pounds)

- Six Machinist Vises (for chipping and filing)

- One 10" Union Universal Chuck

- Miscellaneous collection of other small tools.

In March an exhibition of the work of the Evening Students in Mechanical Drawing was held in the store window of Howard-Sexton Co., on Main street.

In May the annual exhibition of Industrial work in the Public Schools, was held in the City Hall. It was very well attended and many favorable comments were made.

Three illustrated lectures have been given, with slides loaned us by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, Forest Service. These lectures have been very instructive and interesting to the students. A composition is usually required after each lecture.

Twenty-five blue print frames have been made by the Freshman boys to be used in the making of all necessary blue prints for the department.

Last October, about one hundred mechanical drawings were sent to Portsmouth to be displayed at the general exhibition of drawing, during the Convention of the New Hampshire State Teachers' Association.

The boys in the Senior class are now working on two gasoline engines, 2 H. P. 3 1-4" bore x 3 1-4" stroke, one a marine and the other a stationary engine. We hope to have the two of them in running condition by June.

High School Work.

In my last year's report, I stated that the Freshman class was larger than could be conveniently accommodated. I am obliged to make the same statement this year and must add that as many as five boys refused the opportunity of taking this work on account of the crowded conditions.

The Mechanical Drawing room is far from being large enough and I hope that in the near future arrangements will be made whereby we may have larger and better quarters. The course of study is gradually being changed to meet the growing demands of the school.

This year in place of the test-tube stands the freshmen have made blue print frames, which they will use later. I am pleased to mention at this time that the freshmen taking mechanical drawing have come to their classes better prepared and show a clearer insight of the work than all previous freshmen. This I feel is due to the efforts of the Director of Drawing, and the better understanding of the subject on the part of the grade teachers, since I gave the course in Mechanical Drawing two years ago. The difference is particularly noticeable when compared with the out of town pupils.

The second, third, and fourth year work is being carried on as outlined in my last two reports with the exception of Milling Machine work, for the Seniors. Last year's appropriation would not allow the purchasing of this machine.

The Industrial Course for boys gives an all round academic education in English, History, Foreign Languages, Science, and Mathematics, in addition to shop work and Mechanical Drawing.

Some criticism has been made regarding the amount of time given to Industrial Subjects. The general feeling throughout the United States is that more time should be given to the practical subjects.

During the recent Survey of the Richmond Public School, which was under the direction of the National Society for the Promotion of Industrial Education, the U. S. Commissioner of Education, Dr. Claxton, testified that in his judgment one-third of the school day should be devoted to drawing, manual arts, music, domestic science, etc., and that since not more than twenty per cent of the school day in Richmond has been devoted to these subjects, there was probably not enough emphasis on the so-called "non-essentials."

Grammar School Work

The course of study in the grammar grades remains very much the same. At present, we are contemplating the adding of cement work, also reed work in the form of large waste baskets, serving trays, etc.

Mr. Palmer is conducting his work with the right spirit. He is not only showing a great interest in the boys during school hours but he may be seen in the Spring Street shop as late as five o'clock with from twenty to thirty boys doing extra work.

Mr. Fuller after making a very complete set of wireless apparatus, with the help of the boys erected an aerial from the two steeples of the Spring Street School and conducted a class (outside of school hours) in wireless telegraphy.

The following table shows the number of pupils taking Manual Training in the Grammar Schools:

School	Gr. 6	Gr. 7	Gr. 8	Gr. 9	Extra	Total
Spring St.	30	15	18	12	7	82
Spring St.	24	16	13	12		65

Arlington St.	23	20	18			61
	—	—	—	—	—	—
Total	147	95	66	47	7	362

It will be seen from the above table that the classes vary in number from 10 to 30 pupils. It is very difficult to handle a class of 30 boys with but 22 benches in the shop.

Evening School

In the work of the Evening Classes in mechanical drawing I report general progress. On account of the crowded conditions in the drawing room we are unable to enroll more than 22 regular pupils; but by having them come in two classes, every other night, as many as 44 could be accommodated. At present there are 20 in the class, two having left. The entire work is very satisfactory, not only the individual but the community will receive its benefit. Nine of last year's students have returned for more advanced work.

General

Vocational Training and Industrial Education cover most any subject which one might mention.

This department tries to correlate its work with other subjects by giving compositions on book work, lectures, spelling lessons, arithmetic is in constant use, the making of physical apparatus, painting and varnishing about the building, etc.

We are continually making repairs and changes about the shop. One would see a great change in any of the rooms after having first visited them three or four years ago. The changes have been brought about by the necessity of floor space for new equipment. Today we are in need of two additional engine lathes and a milling machine. When the above machines are installed in the High School it will necessitate the giving up of the floor space which is now being used for demonstration purposes.

The crowded conditions of the department show the need of larger quarters which Mr. Fassett explained so well in his 1913 Annual Report under the subject of "New School Building."

Recommendations.

For the further extension of Industrial Work in the Nashua Public Schools.

1st. That a milling machine and two engine lathes be installed in the High School shop.

2nd. That a new floor be laid in the shop at the Spring Street School.

3rd. That the question of securing new accommodations for the department be considered.

Once again I wish to express my thanks to you, for advice, to the members of the School Board of their support, and to the principals and teachers for their willing cooperation.

Respectfully submitted,

ERNEST W. BECK,

Director.

Report of Director of Domestic Science

---

MR. JAMES H. FASSETT, SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS:

DEAR SIR:

In submitting the report of the Domestic Science Department for the year 1914, I wish first to thank the Superintendent, the members of the Committee and others of the Board for their great interest and cooperation, thereby making cooking in the schools possible this year.

The girls of the eighth grades, eighty in number began work in the new cooking laboratory in the Spring Street School at the mid year, 1914. From the first the pupils showed much interest in the cooking lessons and many of them report voluntarily each week the cooking that they are doing at home. During the Spring term a special class of twenty girls from the High School were given instruction one afternoon each week. Each of the last six lessons included a course dinner served to four invited guests. This gave the girls practical instruction in table setting, decoration, and serving of a dinner, as well as the preparation of a well balanced menu. At the opening of school in September the ninth grade girls continued in the cooking classes, spending two hours each week instead of one and one half hours as in the eighth grade. The first six weeks of the Fall term were given to lessons in canning and preserving. The girls canned tomatoes, peaches and pears, and made jellies, jams, marmalade and pickles. Later an exhibition and sale was held in the laboratory for the benefit of the parents and friends who wished to purchase them. A study of yeast and bread making followed these lessons. Each girl made one loaf of bread in class which she carried home with great pride and satisfaction. The following week many loaves of bread made at home by the girls were brought into class. One small girl has recently reported that she makes all the bread for a family of ten. At this time it seemed advisable that the girls have some practical use made of their cooking. The problem of furnishing food for the High School lunch room presented itself and since November 17th the girls of the ninth grades have prepared each day, eight to ten dozen sandwiches, five loaves of cake, several dozen cookies, forty glasses of fruit gelatine, forty mugs of cocoa, and soup or some other hot dish. The work is planned so that each girl in turn prepares the different kinds of food.

In May in connection with the Manual Training and Drawing departments this department held an exhibition in City Hall. Finished garments from ninth grades and High School classes, and models from the sixth, seventh and eighth grades were shown. An exhibition of cooked food including muffins, gingerbread, rolls, biscuits, nut bread, cake, and cookies attracted much attention, also a dining table properly laid and decorated for dinner.

At the opening of school in September Miss Irene B. Dowd of Nashua, a graduate of Worcester Domestic Science School, began her duties as assistant in this department. She is teaching sewing in the sixth, seventh, and eighth grades, having two hundred and forty-seven girls in her classes.

In the High School there are fourteen girls in the Freshman class who spend four periods a week on sewing and three on cooking. In the Sophomore class there are eight girls who have three periods of sewing and three of cooking. In October Miss Buckingham and I went to Boston with twelve of these girls, spending a morning at the Art Museum and an afternoon at the Food Fair. It seemed a very profitable day for all.

Respectfully submitted,

MARY E. A. PILLSBURY.

REPORT OF SCHOOL NURSE

---

MR. JAMES H. FASSETT, SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS:

DEAR SIR:

In compliance with your request, I herewith submit the second annual report of the Medical inspection.

The Medical inspection is going along very well this year. Both parents and children are much more agreeable to Medical inspection than they were last year.

Almost every day I have children come to me and say, "My parents were so glad to find I had such a defect, as they did not know anything about it, until you notified them."

The Inspectors have found a number of defects corrected, which statistics will not show this year, owing to the fact that we have a large number of Greek children in the public schools since their Greek schools have been closed, and most all are defective in one way or another, which covers up the amount of defects corrected.

The school physicians have given a number of children free medical treatment, also first aid surgical treatment and advise to those who were unable to go to their family physician.

Now in regard to cleanliness. The children who were coming to school unclean through their own fault, are very much improved, but I am sorry to say, there are a great many still neglected, and I am afraid will be until we have some provisions made for a bath at the Palm Street and Belvidere Schools, then the children from other buildings who haven't any means to take a bath at home, could come with their parents and be taught how to take one.

The eye tests have been made in the various schools throughout the city, starting in the second grade and going through the High School. We found a very large number of children suffering from defective vision, and nearly all of them were very glad to be notified, and those that could afford to got glasses immediately.

The Board of Education was very glad to help the children whose parents were in financial difficulties.

Through the constant observation of the teachers we have been able to keep a close watch on any symptoms of contagious diseases. Any child who complained of sore throat or anything suspicious was reported immediately, and every precaution taken to prevent disease.

The children who were out sick, I visited the homes, and in any cases of minor sickness, which did not require medical aid, I was very glad to offer any helpful suggestion that I could give. If I thought it necessary that the child have a physician, I advised them to have one.

In closing, I wish to thank you, the members of the Board of Education, also the principals and teachers of the various schools for your cooperation.

Respectfully submitted,

ELIZABETH C. SULLIVAN.

REPORT OF STAMP SAVING SYSTEM

---

MR. JAMES H. FASSETT, SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

DEAR SIR:

In compliance with your request, I submit herewith a report of the history and practical working of the Department of the Stamp Saving System in the Public Schools.

It was in 1906 that Mrs. M. Frances Allen in her annual address, as president of the Nashaway Woman's Club, made the first presentation to the club of the merits of this system and the idea of its being installed in our schools.

Pioneer work was done by Mrs. Allen and her Board of Managers, which bore fruit during the succeeding administration of the late Mrs. Maud Atherton Griswold, who with Mrs. Della H. Allton as representatives of the Club and most ardent promoters of the cause from its inception, were granted an audience by the Board of Education and presented to that body facts obtained by investigations made in cities where the system was in operation in its schools; and asked that this system be placed in our schools.

After the consideration and the conducting of investigations by their own representatives the Board voted to install the Stamp Saving System in the Public Schools and placed it under the management of the Nashaway Woman's Club; said Club to bare the expenses connected with the same.

The Woman's Club entered upon its duties with enthusiasm and appointed Mrs. Della H. Allton and Mrs. Jennie C. Woodbury to visit Somerville, Massachusetts, to learn the working details of the system which was in operation in that city.

Mrs. Woodbury was also made Agent for the Club to introduce the system into the schools and a sum not exceeding $100.00 was appropriated for the initial expenses. Of this amount $76.65 was used.

Mrs. Woodbury was one of the original promoters of the system and in her new office was untiring and efficient; aided by Mrs. Allton and the inspiring cooperation of our Superintendent of Schools and Mr. Daniel W. Perry of the School Board, was enabled in May 1908 to place this new department of our school curriculum on a working basis in all the grades of the city schools below the high school.

The fact that it has survived and is in a flourishing condition at the present time seems a proof of the wisdom of its adoption by our Board of Education.

The system is as follows: The Nashaway Woman's Club appoints one of its members a chairman or agent to take charge of the work. She in turn selects eleven club members to act as collectors—one for each of the eleven school buildings. The collections are made on alternate Fridays.

During the first week of the school year the agent delivers to the principal of each building the capital in stamps which it is estimated will be required for the year, also stamp-cards or folders which are sold to the children for one cent each and on which they paste their stamps.

These stamps are in denominations of one, three, five, ten, and twenty-five cents, respectively. Are in sheets of fifty stamps, perforated and with mucilage upon reverse side the same as postage stamps; being convenient for the use of both teacher and pupil.

The capital of the various buildings at the present time ranges from $12.00 to $43.00 worth of stamps.

The teacher sells stamps to the pupils to the amount of the money deposited with her. The stamps are receipts which the pupils paste on their stamp-cards. They are attractive in appearance; each denomination being of a different color and are a proof of the children's savings in a form which they enjoy.

The division of redemptions into cash and bank accounts is second in importance only to that of stamp sales. If a child needs his deposit his teacher will pay him the entire amount on the presentation of his receipted stamp-card, but the depositors are advised to refrain from cashing their cards until their savings amount to a sum which will permit of their depositing their money in a savings bank, where it will draw interest. This has been made alluring to the child by the Nashua Trust Company's willingness to redeem stamp-cards representing $1.00 or more and open a savings bank account in the individual card-owner's name, but $2.00 is the minimum sum upon which interest is computed.

Said bank is our authority for the statement that at least one third of the children opening savings bank accounts have retained them to the present time.

This powerful friend—the bank account—may be the nucleus of many a future fortune.

It is the duty of the collectors on the regular collection days to visit the buildings assigned to them and receive from the principals the cash from their sales, also blanks filled out recording such sales in detail.

It is the duty of the agent on each collection day, at a stated time, to be at the office of the Superintendent of Schools and receive from the collectors their cash in hand; issuing new stamps for each building to duplicate its sales. Thus the working capital is kept intact to the end of the year.

At the close of each collection day, the agents credits each building with the amount of its sales and deposits the whole sum from the sale of stamps with the Nashua Trust Company. The amount from card sales is retained to defray, in part the current expenses of operating this system.

At the end of the school year the working capital remaining with the principals is returned to the agent, credit given for the same and the accounts of the several buildings closed.

It may be fitting to state that our bookkeeping is done with as much detail and exactness as that of any business corporation.

It may be asked: Why did the Board of Education place this system in its schools? What is its excuse for being?

"Its object is an educational one. It tries to teach that money goes farther when spent in large than in little sums. The stamp-card is like a dam, which holds the money back until it is enough for shoes or a suit of clothes instead of candy or a ribbon."

To cite specific cases which came to our personal attention: Last October a ten year old Lithuanian boy had a savings account of $5.00 and $2 00 in stamps on his card representing his savings (which were largely his own earnings) during his eighth and ninth years. He withdrew his money from the bank purchasing for himself a suit of winter clothes for $4 50 and a pair of rubbers for 50 cents; having left a little interest which his $5.00 had earned while on deposit. The $2.00 on his card was redeemed by his teacher and presented by him to his mother for the purpose of buying necessities for a little sister. The mother is a poor widow with five children, the youngest three years and the oldest fifteen. Recently our little man informed us, his face brightening with pleasure, that he had bought another card and put a one-cent stamp on it,—“just for a starter ” At the present writing, after three weeks time, the card has a cash value of 75 cents. A very manly and dependable little boy, who promises to make a desirable American citizen!

Another instance from a different station in life: This time an only child—a tenderly cared-for little girl of six years. The mother, with words of praise for the system, told the writer that she had been in the habit of giving her daughter about 50 cents thru the week, in sums of 5 or 10 cents at a time, all being spent as soon as received. Since September of the present year, when this child first entered the primary school, every penny which came into her possession has been used for the purchase of stamps, much to the mother's delight, who has become thoroly imbued with the merits of our system.

It is the bringing of the opportunity to save to the plastic child which is one of its fundamental advantages.

But of supreme importance and most far-reaching in its effects is the habit of self-control which is trained every time a child buys a penny stamp which he places on his stamp-card instead of yielding to his inherited tendency for spending his money.

It is said that extravagance is the cardinal sin of the American people, and charitable workers in constant contact with wage-earners state that a large proportion of them are only a few weeks away from Want, and that many of them are only a few months from Actual Poverty.

If these facts are true and we realize that the interests of us all are interlaced, as a matter of self-defense for this community as a unit, it behooves us to encourage the birth of the spirit of thrift and economy—very potent principles in the affairs of men and nations.

Stamp and card sales from Oct. 2, 1914 to Feb. 11, 1915, $766.90.

Total to date, $8,117.71.

As the individual deposits are in small amounts a very large number of depositors are represented; and the effect this accumulation has had in teaching the principles of thrift and self-control—in character building,—must be beyond computation.

It is said that "Work is not a penalty, but a spiritual opportunity of the highest order."

The success which has been attained is the result of the hard work of all who have taken a part—our faithful teachers and principals, collectors and agents, together with the unremitting labor of Mrs. Woodbury, and the invaluable assistance of our Superintendent of Schools and Board of Education—to all of whom, in behalf of the Nashaway Woman's Club, I extend thankful appreciation.

Respectfully submitted,

DELIA PIERCE FISKE.

"Non est Vivere sed Valere Vita"

---

Programme

Prayer,

Rev. J. Bruce Gilman

Class Oration, The Motto

Fred Thurston Marsh

Song, The Thunder Maker

Henry F. Gilbert

Class

In summers of old, when mountains roar'd,
And the red fires leap'd on high.
"Oh, it's Vulcan bold, with his terrible horde,"
All the simple folk would cry:
They're forging the thunder of mighty Jove;
The heavens are loud with their smiting,
And when from the anvils the bright sparks fly,
All the clouds are aflame with their light'ning.

Oh, great are the gods on Olympian heights,
The gods that can never die.
But greatest of all is the one who smiles
On the thunder bolts in the sky.

Kling! Klang! Kling!
You can hear the hammers ring,
As he works above for his master Jove,
And the anvils glitter and ring.
Kling! Klang! Kling!
How the sparks from the forges fly.
While he works to make the bolts that shake
Sea and valley, hill and sky.
—Frederick Manley

Address,

Marshall L. Perrin, Ph. D.
Boston University

Prophecies—Part I

Lillian Esther Crouse

Prophecies—Part II

Basil Joseph Mitchell

Song, Carmena

H. Lane Wilson

Class

Dance and song make glad the night.
Hark! the castanets are sounding light.
Come, ah, come.
Love, I watch the scene so bright.

Ah! now rings a voice I know from every voice apart.
Through the orange grove he hastens,
He is coming, oh, my heart.

Ah! 'mid the throng many are fair;
Bright flow'rets twine in raven hair.
Through flow'ts twine in raven hair,
Dark eyes sparkle and gleam,
Soft lips breath tender sighs.
Shall I fairest seem in his eyes?

Hark, now ring the music,
While the silver moonbeams shine,
In the dance, love, and forever,
I am only thine, only thine.

—Ellis Walton
